HALCYON AGRI LAUNCHES HEVEAPRO BRAND NATURAL RUBBER

- Premium Technically Specified Rubber produced by Halcyon Agri in Indonesia and Malaysia
- Sets the standard for quality, responsibility and sustainability in natural rubber production
- Production to commence in October 2015

Singapore, 1 October 2015 Natural rubber supply chain manager Halcyon Agri Corporation Limited today announced the launch of its HEVEAPRO brand natural rubber, to be produced by the Company to demanding standards of quality, responsibility and sustainability.

Halcyon Agri is one of the world's leading suppliers of the natural rubber essential for the production of vehicle tires, producing Technically Specified Rubber at its 14 facilities across Indonesia and Malaysia. Executive Chairman and CEO Robert Meyer commented: "We're conscious that our natural rubber is used in products where quality, reliability and safety are critical but so too is sustainability and responsibility. We're taking the lead by setting high standards for ourselves to produce a premium product for our customers. HEVEAPRO is not just about being "green" but a holistic view of what we produce and how we produce it".

Halcyon Agri's HEVEAPRO charter is based around four core attributes; Quality, Environment Health & Safety, Social Responsibility and Security. To ensure high standards are maintained, specific benchmarks have been established against a range of criteria, which are subject to regular audits and reviews. HEVEAPRO will be distributed through Halcyon Agri's global sales network and will carry the distinctive HEVEAPRO production mark.

More information and the HEVEAPRO charter is available on Halcyon Agri's website at www.halcyonagri.com
