SINGAPORE, 07 November 2019 – The 2019 International Wheelchair Rugby Tournament, organised by the Bali Sports Foundation Asia (BSF Asia) has arrived in Singapore for the competition finals today. As the event partner of the 2019 International Wheelchair Rugby Tournament, Halcyon Agri, together with BSF Asia, hosted a series of wheelchair rugby tournaments across Southeast Asia which is aimed at promoting greater inclusion and demonstrating the merits of sports in promoting resilience, enhancing self-esteem as well as self-efficacy among persons with disabilities.

The 2019 International Wheelchair Rugby Tournament began in June this year where the series started with the Bali 4s tournament in Indonesia before it swept across the region, with additional stops in Palembang and Ipoh. Wheelchair rugby is a Paralympic sport recognised by the Singapore Disability Sports Council and is practised in over twenty-five countries worldwide.

Following the excitement of the recent 2019 Rugby World Cup, a total of fifteen matches are due to be held at Singapore's Toa Payoh Sports Hall and the Singapore Cricket Club between 7 to 9 November. Top paralympians the likes of Christoph Werner of Germany, President of the International Wheelchair Rugby Federation of Europe and Risto Mort, President of the Wheelchair Rugby Federation of Finland graced the opening ceremony of the tournament finals at Toa Payoh Sports Hall today.

Five teams representing Australia, Europe, Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore will compete over a three-day schedule to become overall champions of the Halcyon Super Series.
